What is a Chinese Auction?

A Chinese auction is neither Chinese nor is it an auction. On the night of the auction, purchased tickets are deposited into the prize boxes of your choice. Ticket prices vary from $5 to $35 per package. While you view the prize packages and make your prize selections, you can enjoy delicious food and good company. At the end of the evening, one ticket will be drawn from each box, and the winner will walk away as the delighted owner of that prize.

No family or individual can win more than a maximum of three prizes. If said persons win more than three separate packages, they can choose which to forfeit and those prizes will be redrawn.

Unable to attend? Please use the order form and return it in the enclosed envelope by Thursday, February 9, 2012.

For more information, contact Jodi Mailman at (301)-962-8003, ext. 2300.
